

Pottery Place Plus

Fine craft made locally

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of the Pottery Place Plus, established in the old Spokane Flour Mill in 1978 and now located in the Liberty Building in back of Aunties Bookstore.

Our customers represent a wide range of Spokane's local art and fine craft buyers as well as tourists visiting the city.

Openings for new membership are available when one of our members takes a year leave of absence or resigns. The jury is composed of all permanent members who will view photos and samples of your work.

New members start with a Provisional membership for one year with limited voting rights. At the end of this period, you may apply for Permanent membership with full voting rights. Provisional members pay a nonrefundable entry fee of $100.00. Upon acceptance as a Permanent member another $100.00 fee is charged.

To cover operating expenses, each member pays $125.00 or 20% (whichever is greater) of their gross sales each month.

Each member contributes to the overall running of the shop by serving in one of the following areas:

President
Vice President
Secretary
Treasurer
Asst. Treasurer

Supplies
Advertising
New Members
Display
Scheduling

Historian
Mentoring
Cleaning
Facility Maintenance
Website

These jobs change annually and members help according to their interests and abilities.

Each member is responsible for running the shop in a professional manner approximately three 6 hour shifts per month. Shop hours are:

10 am - 9pm Monday through Friday
11 am - 6 pm Sunday

The shop is closed Memorial Day, July 4th, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas and January 1st.

Trained spouses and approved substitutes may work 50% of a member's shifts.
